

"This watch was first purchased by your great-grandfather during the First World War" "It was on your daddy's wrist when he was shot down, or that hand away. It was captured, put in a Vietnamese prison camp. Five long years he wore this watch, up his ass. Then he died of dysentery"